Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there be in silence.

As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons.

Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and the ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit.

If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.

Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time.

Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery.

But let not this blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself.

Especially, do not feign affection.

Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth.

Nurture strength of spirit so shield you in sudden misfortune.

But do not distress yourself with imaginings.

Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness.

Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here.

And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be.

And whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusions of life keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham drudgery and broken dreams; it is still a beautiful world.

Strive to be happy.

Go placidly amid the noise and haste

And remember what peace there be in silence

Listen to others

Exercise caution in your business affairs;

Keep interested in your own career.

however humble;

*You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees

Gracefully surrendering

Homecoming '73

Karen Johnson, a member of last year's court, crowns our Homecoming Queen for 1973, Diane Corbett, with her escort, Keith Walbert.

Mary Lou Johnson and Mike Marino.

Lori Jones
and Rick Shutt.

Sharen Suglia and Ed Sheick.

Stephanie Swisher and Dave Witter.

JUNIOR MISS

... it is still a beautiful world.

Berks County's Junior Miss, our own Diane Corbett.

Diane Corbett represented our school in the Berks County Junior Miss Pageant. The theme of the pageant was centered around Mickey Mouse and his Disneyland friends. For her talent Diane played the piano and recited a monologue on the history of music in the twentieth century. She was judged on youth fitness, evening gown (poise and appearance), talent, scholastic achievement, and the judges' interview. Diane did an excellent job. She not only won the poise and appearance award, but she also won the title of Berks County's Junior Miss. From there she went to the Pennsylvania Junior Miss Pageant where she not only represented our school but also our county. We should be proud of her.

"Holy Caboodles, Cornelius! You're not going to kiss Mrs. Molloy!"

The Senior Class

Presents

"Ermengarde, you have the soul of a field mouse."

The Matchmaker

"Money, pardon the expression, money is like manure."

"He'll kill me."

"It's the doorbell." . . . Ding Dong . . .

Get 'em Ed.

Easy, Keith, I'll get that knife out in no time.

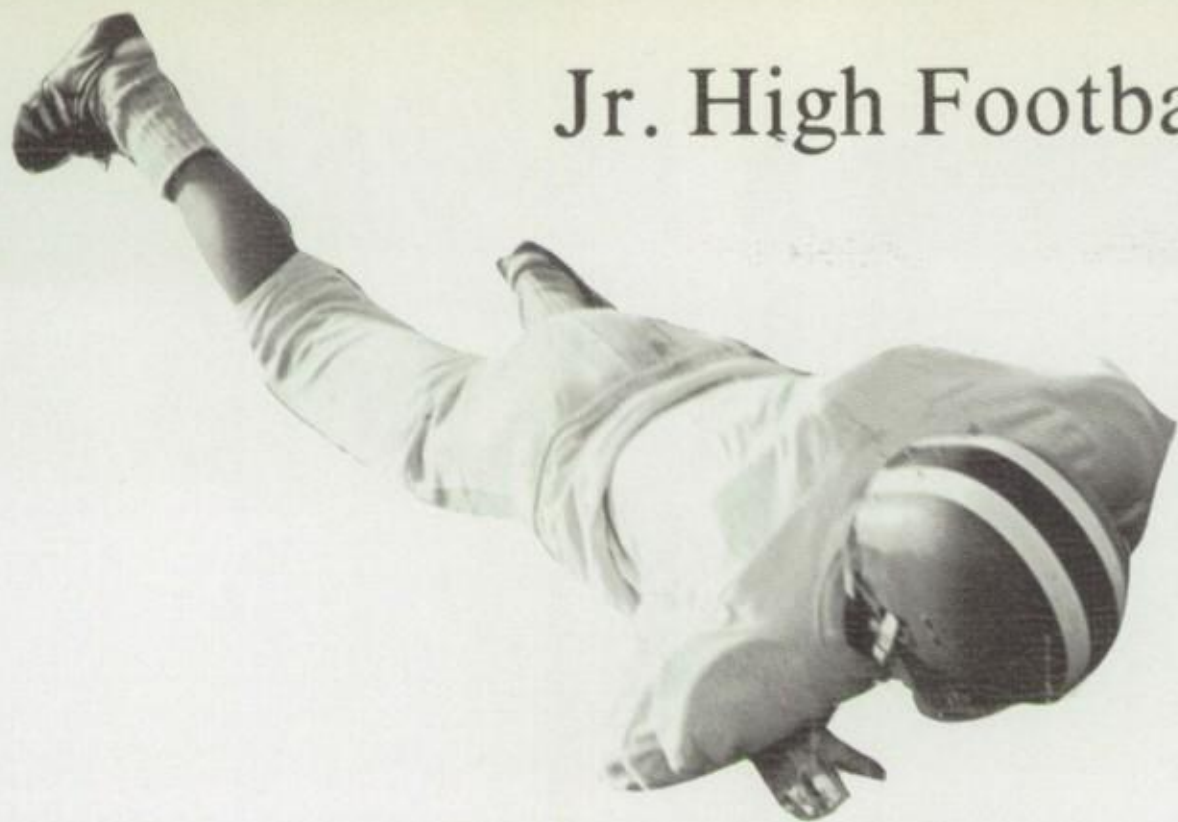

The 1973 Football season can be described in many different ways. If you look at it optimistically, it was tremendous. At the end of the season we won our last two games in a row, including a 21-20 victory over arch-rival Exeter. The spirit soared to unheard-of heights and the outlook for next season is great. However, if you look at it from a perfectionist's point of view, it was below expectations. There were quite a few losses in a row, including a loss to Hamburg, which was unheard of in Inter-County league play. So, who's side are you on? And so, we close the book on Football '73. We're going to call it a building year.

Jr. High Football

Once again, the Junior High outshone the Varsity. The Baby Blazers finished the season strong and hopes are high for next year. The discovery of latent talents bolstered optimism even further and insured winning varsity teams in the future. We think that the coaches deserve a hand because the fruits of their efforts won't be noticed until future years.

This year's varsity team showed a lot of determination and potential. Although the team didn't win many games, they put on quite a show for their few spectators at their home games. The highlight of the season was a record-breaking 77-42 victory over Kutztown. Only losing three seniors, Mary Beth Long, Teresa Pribish and Debbie Kramer, the team is looking forward to a better season next year.

The J.V. team experienced a winning season. After getting off to a slow start, they went on to win most of their games.

"I don't believe this."

Come on Mike. Only five more.

It looks like Ed is sitting down on the job.

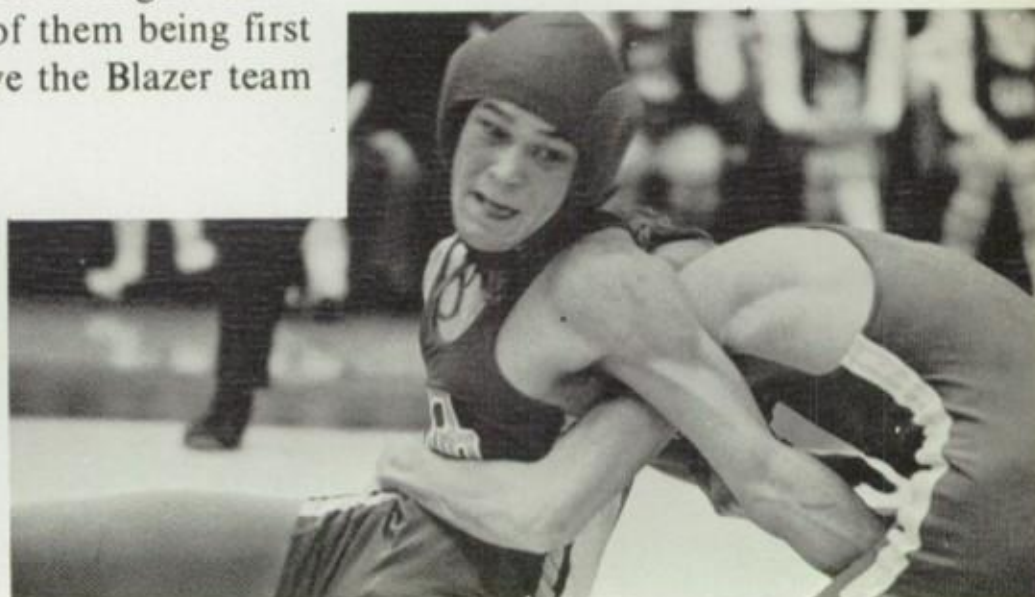

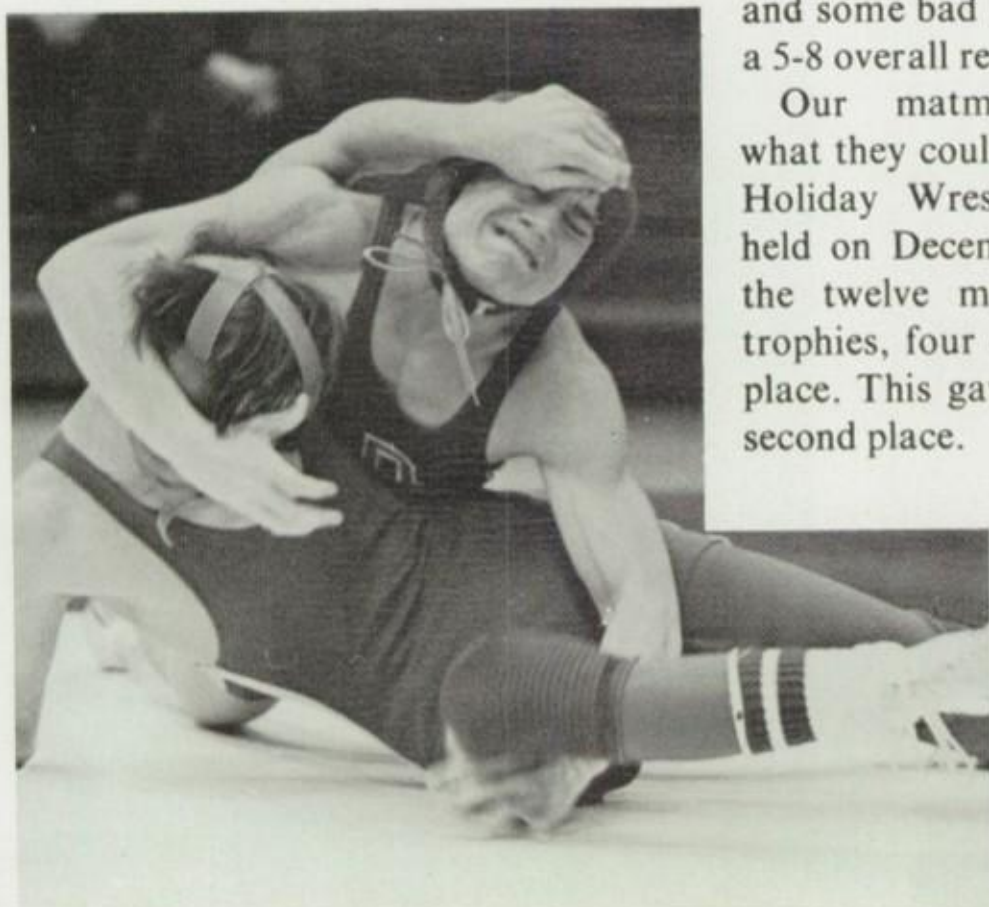

"I got you in the end."

The wrestling season turned out to be a bit of a disappointment this year. With nine returning lettermen possessing agility and strength, a winning season was expected. But a few injuries and some bad breaks added up to a 5-8 overall record.

Our matmen demonstrated what they could do in the Annual Holiday Wrestling Tournament held on December 27. Eleven of the twelve men brought home trophies, four of them being first place. This gave the Blazer team second place.

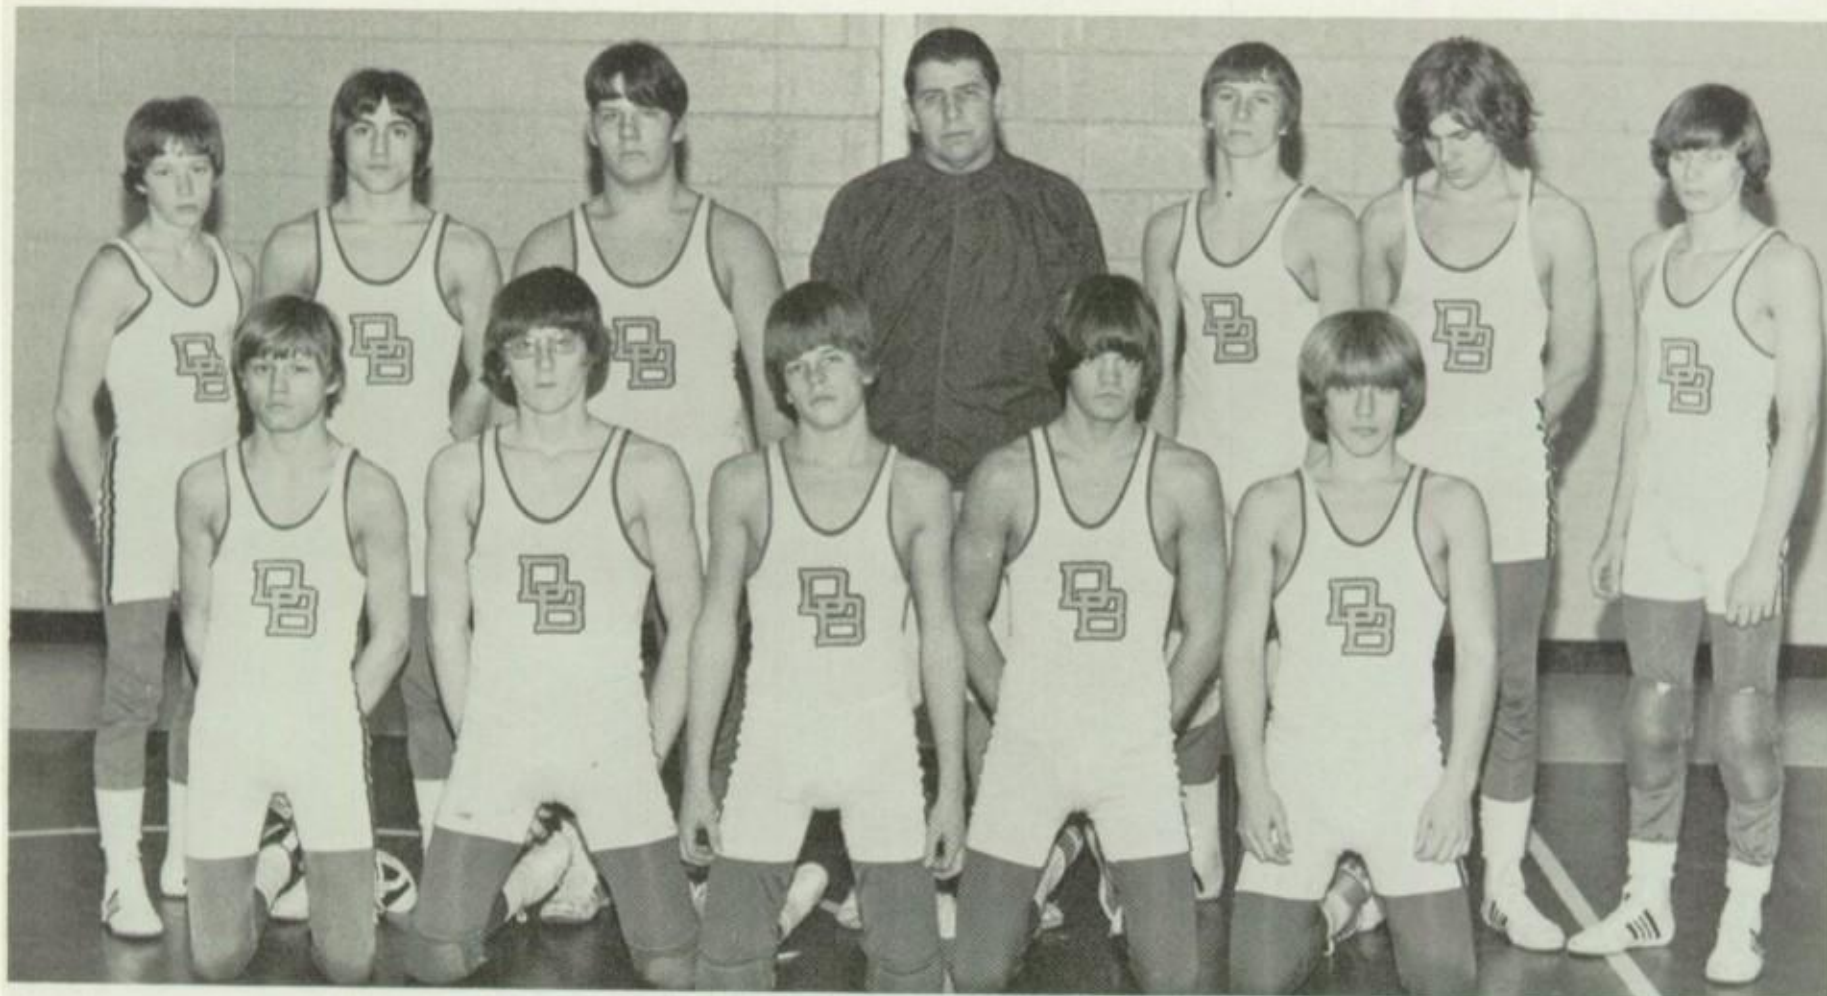

"I wish this guy would get off my back."

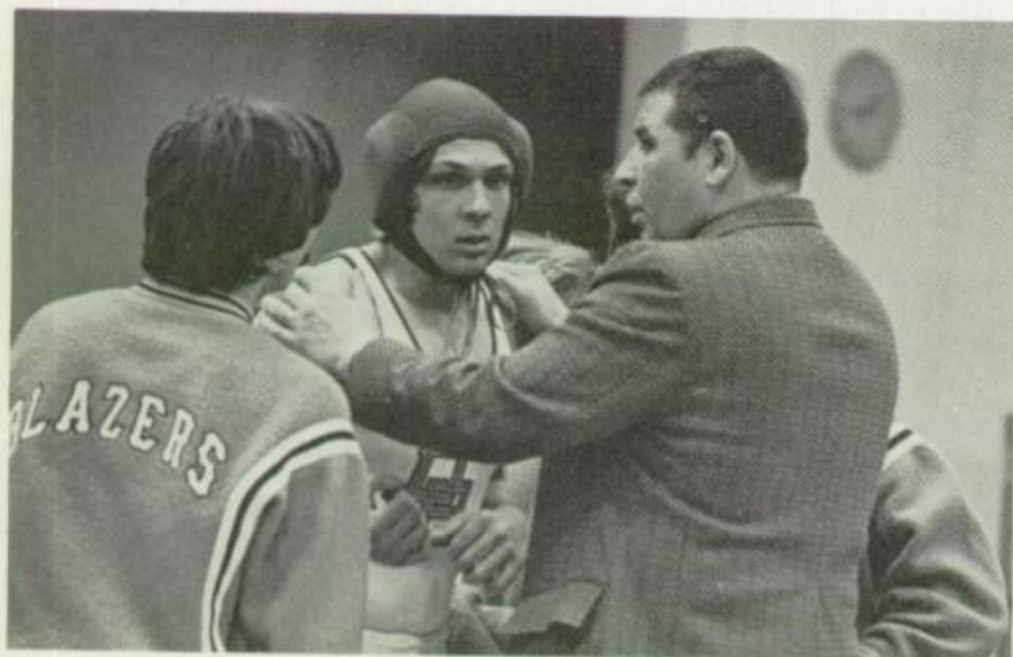

Gary tries for a switch.

The J.V. Wrestlers project a bright light into the future. They won the majority of their matches. J.V. matmen also have the task of replacing a varsity man when he is injured. They also did a fine job here. The varsity team looks promising for next year.

Mike earns three points for his teammates.

True Blazer Determination

Looking back upon the 1973—74 season, one must say it was quite an improvement over the past few years, with added height and the experience gained by many new faces. By total team effort and determination, our courtmen reeled in many important victories that ventured them into the playoff jungle. Our Blazers look forward to a thoroughly promising season next year.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Don't panic, fellas', help is coming!

No one really knew what to expect from this year's J.V. squad. Although a lot of height was lacking, they made up for the lack by having a good, quick, aggressive team. Although it was a dismal year record-wise, there were many bright spots, and the experience gained should make next year's team even greater. Paced by Capt. Dan Everhart, the Baby Blazers did manage some impressive wins over some very worthy opponents, most of them being very much taller. The future looks promising for the little Blazers.

This past year we the Orion Staff tried to portray the 1974 school year as we saw it. The Desiderata, our theme, tries to show us what to strive for. Hopefully we have succeeded, at least as best we could, to live up to these ideals. We like to think of ourselves as innovators, trying when possible to do the different for the better. When looking through this yearbook, if we have succeeded, you will see this.

If this class has a message to leave for future classes, it would have to be, be innovative, always try for improvements, and don't give up, even during your final days here, fighting for your cause. Good luck to all who follow.

BACCALAUREATE AND COMMENCEMENT

You have a right to be here . . .

The beginning of the end of our lives at D.B.

Tom delivers an inspiring recitation of the Desiderata at Baccalaureate.

Maris and Mary Lou delight the audience with their duet "I Believe".

Diane remembers the good times past; Beth looks forward to things to come.

Kim receives one of the many awards given to deserving students.

The choir does its thing at Baccalaureate.

Diane Corbett, one of the student speakers, gives her talk. She was followed by Mary Beth Long and Patty Keifer.

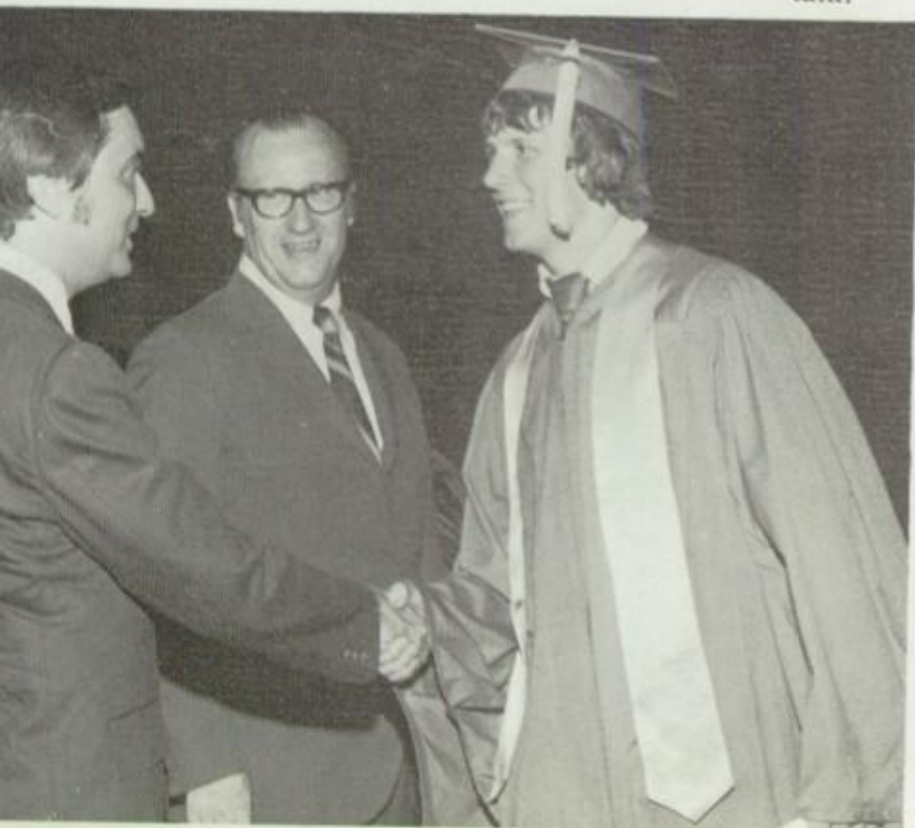

Congratulations, Liz!

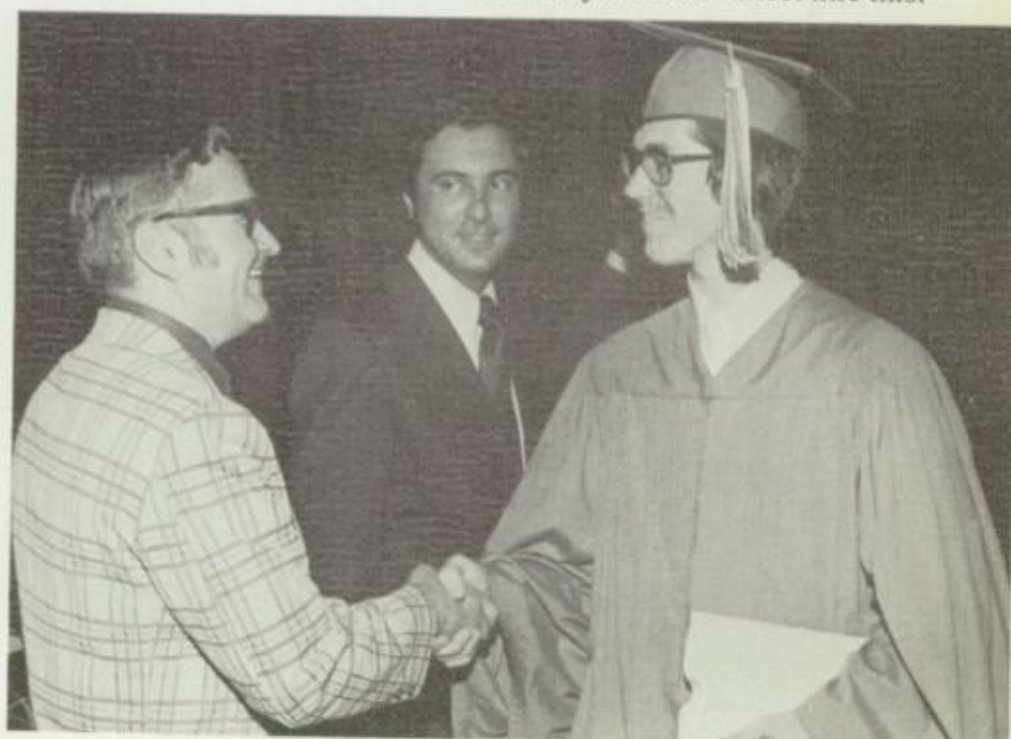

Mary Beth delivers a very innovative talk.

We really shouldn't meet like this!

Now slow down Ed, you are still under our control for 20 minutes.

Fancy meeting you here, Dad.

"Does Kathy have your flower, Paul?"

"Diane! We shouldn't be meeting like this, at least not in front of Joe."

Sr. Class Trip ... to New York City

Well who knows what one will find in N.Y.

Nooo, That's not a streaker is it?

All right now, where's the entrance to the Playboy club?

First stop — NBC.

O.K. gang, I think it's time for a D.B. caucus.

The U.N. better look out 'cause here we come!

JR. CLASS TRIP

... to Washington, D.C.

Are you sure this isn't the bus to the Phillies game?

Don't worry, Mr. B., we'll have him back in time.

Where are we going next?

Don't tell Her "B"!

You mean we're still an hour from Washington?

Joe, I was just about to take your picture.

Would you believe cokes?

Okay, now which way is Watergate?

JR. CLASS PLAY

Kill them — dead or alive.

I know nothing, I hear nothing, I see nothing.

What Ever Happened to Mother Earth? was born in the febrile brain of a super-annuated crone named Mrs. Fullwood, who is occasionally seen to totter helplessly about the halls of Daniel Boone. It was given life and substance by twenty-five junior-class men and women (with the help of several seniors, sophomores, and faculty members) who created out of it a "happening" strongly dominated by manifestations of love (for each other and for the world) and of their joy in living.

A rather heartwarming footnote is the fact that cast members have felt that they came out of the experience with a feeling of closeness and understanding for all of the cast, regardless of previous feelings of hostility and/or indifference. The name of the game, you see, is brotherhood.

Getting Better Every Year

Miss Hawman discusses the defense with Kim Batdorf.

Conference

Every year our Daniel Boone Girls' Softball Team has improved. This has been the fourth year since its beginning. The team had some trouble spots but it worked them out. They won 3 games and lost 7 games. Losing only four seniors, Teresa Pribish, Mary Beth Long, Liz Breitenstein, and Sharon Gehman, the outlook for next year is promising.

GOLF

Hey, Mr. Lacey, do I get a Mulligan?

The man to whom we come with all our problems: Mr. Lacey.

What is this, a beauty contest?

Phoof!

I wonder what club I should use?

Brilliant putt, Woz!

Ron puts his stomach into the ball and hooks it out-of bounds.

Good putt, Ox!

Well, they say golf is a leisurely sport.

I keep telling you guys: Keep the ball in the fairway.

Our top three golfers revert to their second childhood.

The Blazers' golf team finished second in their division, again. Led by seniors Tom Woznicki, Bill Detweiler, Ron Schwendt, and Harold Hamilton, the Blazers finished with an 8-4 record, 7-3 in the league, losing two close matches to Owen J. Roberts and Mount Penn. The other two losses came as no surprise at the hands of defending champions, Wyomissing. Tom, Harold and Keith Oxenford qualified for the County Tournament, where Keith and Harold made the second round. The same three also qualified for the District Three Tournament, where none made the cut.

Paced by the outstanding efforts of Gail Dengler and Barry Buchanan, the Junior High Track team finished with a 5 win, 1 loss record which made them sectional champions. # Baseball

Come on, "UMP"!

Run, Baby, RUN!

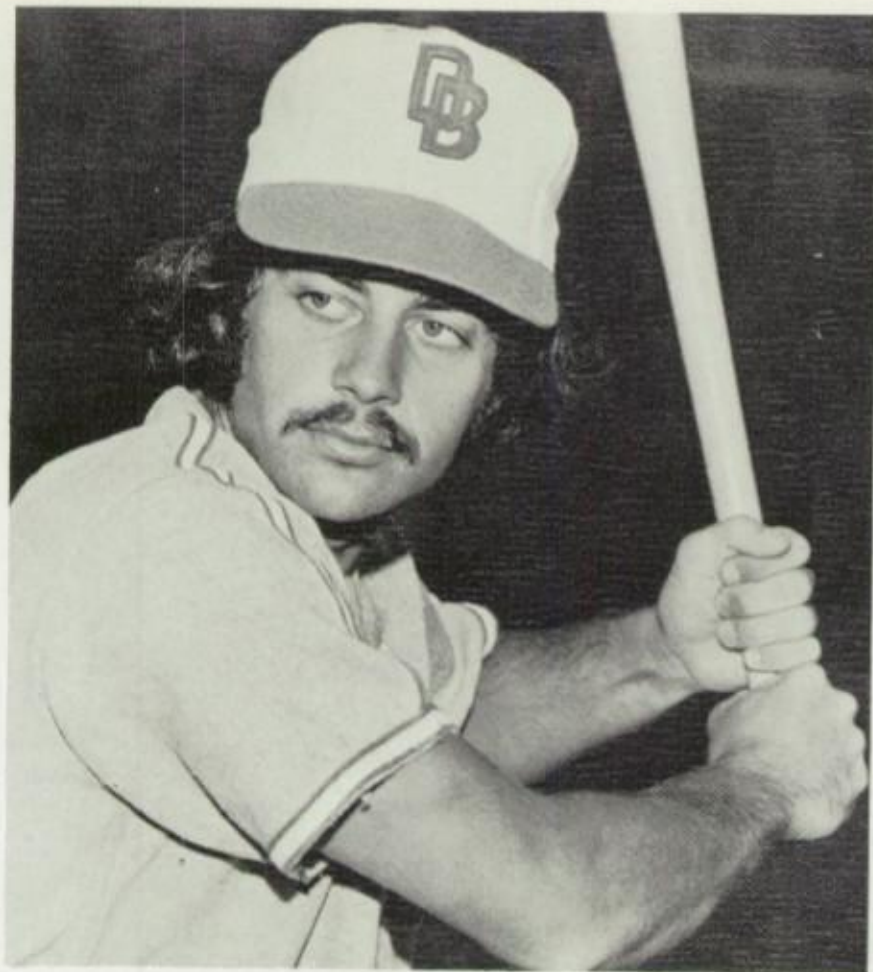

I Got It!

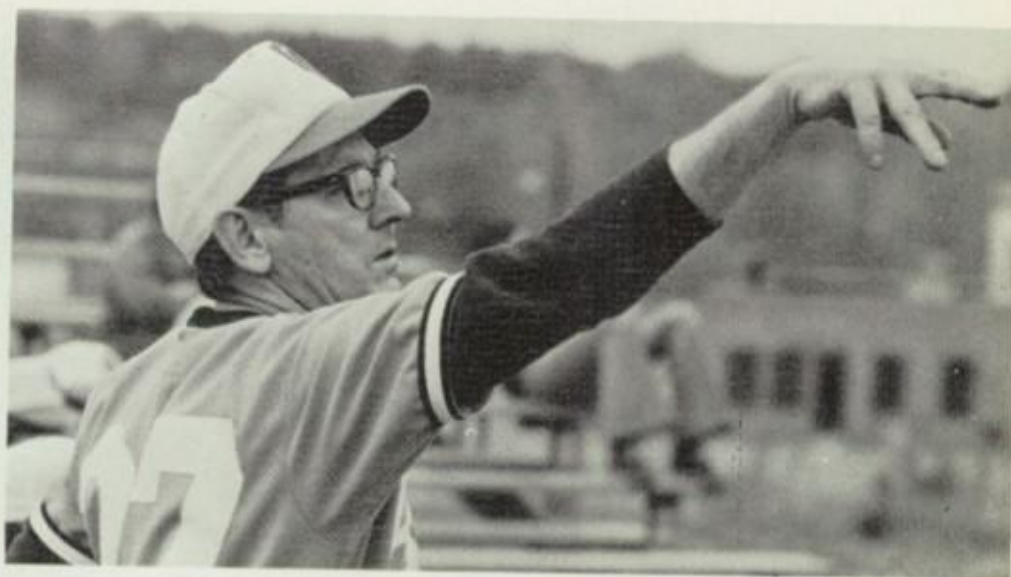

Don't worry, I'm comin'.

Despite the prediction that the Blazers would have only an average season this year, we came through and almost upset Exeter for the division title. With a record of 7-2, we were tied with the Eagles for first place. In our final game, however, we were beaten by Twin Valley while Exeter had a final victory over Mt. Penn. We are proud of our team, their effort, and their final record of 7-3.
